WEDDINGS.

Patton-Owen.

A marriage of interest to their many friends occurred recently at the residence of the bride's mother, Miss Minnie Scott, Thirteenth avenue, North. The contracting parties were Mr. Robert A. Patton and Miss Bessie Lee Owen. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Robert Esmond, of New Town. The bride was very prettily dressed in a cream voile skirt and an allover lace waist. She carried in her arms a bunch of white chrysanthemums. The parlor was prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. An ice course was served and in a cozy corner frappe was served by Mrs. Luke Vaughn and Mrs. W. A. James. The presents were numerous and useful, including quilts, sheets, towels, counterpanes, dishes, glassware and several pieces of silver and bric-a-brac.

Haddock-Woods.

Miss Lizzie James Woods, of 579 Tenth avenue, South, while visiting friends in Chicago, was married to Mr. Lemuel Haddock, of 639 Bass street, Sept. 9, at Squire Waldon's office. Mrs. Birdie Butler was the witness. The marriage was kept a secret until last Sunday, when it was made known to both the families. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Black, Mr. Haddock's mother and father and Miss Woods' relatives, also Mrs. Amanda T. Jordan and Mr. Buchanan. Rev. Boone, of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, officiated.

Bryant-Cecil.

On Saturday evening of last week a wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Lizzie Bryant. The contracting parties were Miss Ida Cecil and Mr. Willie C. Bryant. A light menu was served. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryant left Monday for Hendersonville, Ky., their future home.

Silvers-Smith.

The wedding of Mr. Andrew Silvers and Miss Emma Smith was prettily solemnized by Rev. Jones, of Lane Tabernacle Church, last Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, of Sixth avenue, North. The house was decorated with palms. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The groomsmen were Mr. Eugene Silvers, and Miss Willodean Jones was maid of honor. Little Miss Suburban Scott, the flower bearer, was very pretty as she led the bridal party, carrying in her hand a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The bride made a lovely picture in her bridal costume. Her bouquet was bridal roses and chrysanthemums. The wedding gifts were numerous and valuable. Mr. and Mrs. Silvers will be at 1907 Sixth avenue, North.

SEEKING RELATIVES.

The Nashville Globe is in receipt of a letter from New Castle, Wash., dated November 7. It comes from one Mr. King Bird, who is looking for his lost relatives. The letter reads in part as follows: "I would like to ask a favor of you, and it is that you please lend me some assistance in locating my relatives. I left my mother in Moscow, Tenn., about twenty years ago. Her name was Mercy Micky and her oldest son was named John Micky. One of her daughters was Kaldonia Gray. She had a grand daughter by the name of Sophia Pullman and another by the name of Amy Gray. Her grandson was named Gove Micky. Thinking that they might have moved into Nashville, I thought I would write to see if you could help me to locate some of them. I am very anxious to find some one that can give me the information desired. My mother had another grandson by the name of Argyle Micky. Any information leading up to the whereabouts of these persons will be highly appreciated. Address all communications to King Bird, New Castle, Wash." This letter is produced for the accommodation of the gentleman, who has been away for a score of years from loved ones.

NAPIER SCHOOL NOTES.

The teachers and pupils of Napier School have a keen appreciation of whatever success attends the efforts made in the other public schools of the city towards securing perfect attendance. The same sort of work is being put forth with might and main in this building. And having seen a published statement in the Globe of the weekly attendance of two teachers in Pearl School, we hereby extend our commendations to those two teachers and beg to give to the public the attendance of at least five teachers at Napier during last week: Miss G. A. Lofton's room, no absents out of 57 pupils; Mrs. M. M. Young, 3 out of 50; Miss L. Bright, 4 out of 50; Mrs. M. A. Anderson, 6 out of 103; Miss Addie Bell, 5 out of 90. It is very encouraging to see the pupils of all the eight different rooms rivaling each other to get the best mark on the board. The Principal and teachers are certainly proud of the awakening, for nothing is more demoralizing to school work than poor attendance.

WILLING WORKERS' CLUB.

Mrs. P. A. Simms entertained the Willing Workers' Club, of Kayne Avenue Baptist Church, Monday night at her residence, 917 Dixon street. After spending some time with the business, Mrs. Coletta Turnbow read a paper, subject: "Christianity," which was very instructive. A two-course luncheon with ices was served. The Club will meet next Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Maddux, of 1745 Edgehill avenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maddux, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Simms, Deacon O. W. Stokes, President A. L. Anderson, Mesdames J. W. DeWees, Wm. Amos, Jas. Gentry, Coletta Turnbow, Lena Johnson, Misses Millie Simms and Mamie Johnson.

SACRED CONCERT.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather last Sunday evening, the sacred concert at the First Baptist Church, Eighth avenue, North, was postponed and will be rendered on next Sunday evening, November 24. The same program, which includes such noted singers as Mesdames H. A. Cameron, D. A. Hart, Prof. J. W. Work, Dr. Miller, together with the Glee Clubs of Fisk and Walden Universities, will be carried out.

NAMES NEW ORGANIZATION THE NASHVILLE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE.

The third meeting of the business and professional men of Nashville which met at the directors' room of the One Cent Savings Bank, Wednesday, November 20, succeeded in going into permanent organization. The largest representation of the three meetings was recorded on this special occasion, as the invitation committee, Messrs. Johnson, Moore and Boyd, had sent out special printed invitations to nearly every business or professional Negro in the city. And notwithstanding the inclement weather of the evening, a large crowd filled the directors' room to overflowing. Many came and went away on account of their inability to get into the meeting, but they left their best wishes with instructions to count them in with the good movement. Temporary Chairman Martin was not at all tardy in calling the meeting to order and the entire body was soon down to work.

The Committee on Constitution and By-Laws, Messrs. Smith, Johnson, and Langston, presented a voluminous typewritten report which they offered to the body as their part of the work. Upon motion the constitution and by-laws were read, discussed, amended and adopted by sections. The most important was possibly the first article, Section 1, setting forth the name of the organization. The same was amended to read "Nashville Business and Professional League." After some little discussion this section was adopted, thereby Nashville enjoys the distinction of once more having a live organization whose purposes will be the stimulating of trade to Negro business enterprises, the disseminating of advertising matter and other information that will mean much good for this city and Davidson County, as well as for looking out for the interest of the business and profession in the race. The meeting lasted until 10:30. Most of the time was spent upon reading, amending and adopting the constitution and by-laws.

The organization provides for a president, first, second and third vice presidents, secretary, treasurer, and such assistant secretaries as the organization may deem necessary from time to time. These are the only elective officers, but numerous committees are provided for, such as committees on grievances, business, real estate, finance, the press and many others of equal importance. The executive committee is to consist of five members with the elective officers. The regular meeting nights will be the fourth Thursday in each month. The annual meetings were fixed at the third Thursday in November, while each fiscal year is to end with October 31.

Realizing the lateness of the hour, the meeting adjourned to meet at its regular monthly meeting, which was Thursday night, at which the officers for the ensuing year were elected. Those present and whose names will be enrolled in the permanent organization were J. S. Martin, A. N. Johnson, J. B. Bosley, C. N. Langston, J. F. Battle, W. O. Tate, Geo. McKissack, J. J. Lay, W. F. Randals, J. West Bostick, J. B. Batte, R. L. Mayfield, T. J. Turner, H. A. Boyd, R. F. Boyd, R. S. White, J. P. Rhines, Henry Gray, Rev. Luke Mason, Rev. J. C. Fields, J. B. Singleton, Horace Starnes, F. G. Smith, H. L. Keith, G. E. Washington, C. V. Roman, W. H. McGavock, I. L. Moore, E. W. D. Isaac, Jr., Moses McKissack, Marshall Cheatham, George Gary, G. F. Anderson, J. P. Crawford, T. Clay Moore.
